

Rasher's rules of engagement

This list includes all rules revealed during book one of Bacon Master.

#1 - Never see them bleed

#2 - If it doesn't include bacon, it's really not that important

#4 - Never let a clever enemy choose the battlefield

#7 - You can't improve if you don't train with a plan

#9 - Bacon only sizzles when dropped into the fire

#12 - One step at a time.

#17 - When you can't beat an enemy, make him think he's already won.

#22 - When an enemy wants you to hold your ground, charge.

#25 - Fighting in anger gives your enemy power to control you

#27 - When hostility can't be avoided, stomp it like a grape.

#32 - Our most important goals require the most intense sacrifice

#34 - Survive the moment. Make sense out of it later.

#36 - When all hope is lost, eat a memorable breakfast.

#42 - When facing a clever enemy, it makes sense to walk where they tread

#45 - Moments of great danger are opportunities to look dashing and enjoy the thrill of living

#49 - When skill is lacking, enthusiasm sometimes saves the day
